

MONTANA 4-H INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS 2018 OUTBOUND CHAPERONE POSITION DESCRIPTION NEW ZEALAND

PURPOSE & EXPECTATIONS

The primary purpose of the 4-H chaperone is to support the exchange delegates while traveling abroad. Delegates' needs range from questions about preparing for travel, to host family issues, to medical emergencies while abroad. Although the chaperone should build rapport with the delegates, his/her main responsibility is to be the group leader. He/she should take charge when problems arise, take disciplinary action if needed, and serve as a role model while traveling abroad and interacting with people of different cultures. Additional responsibilities include, but are not limited to, providing meet-and-greet services at the airport, helping delegates with international travel procedures, monitoring delegates during the program, and providing guidance for delegates' concerns and issues.

CHAPERONE CRITERIA/REQUIREMENTS

- Must be at least 25 years of age at the start of the exchange
- Must have experience chaperoning and working with youth
- Should have international travel experience and/or living abroad
- Should exhibit involvement and interest in the country for which they are applying
- Must be available for the full exchange period, including any pre-departure orientation activities (e.g. conference calls, email correspondence, orientations, etc.), and the day after the exchange period in case of any travel deviations or flight cancellations
- Must be available by phone and email to the Montana 4-H office and to delegates starting at least 2 months prior to departure
- Must have good communication skills, especially with teenagers, demonstrating exceptional tact and sensitivity to others
- Must be flexible, able to adapt to pressure, uncertain or changing schedules, and manage embarrassing situations
- Cannot have a child participating in the same exchange program to which the chaperone is applying

CHAPERONE ROLE & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Participate in program preparations as requested.
- Become acquainted with each delegate before the exchange (by phone, email, etc.). Chaperones may be responsible for delegates from other states.
- Comply with all 4-H procedures and policies as well as procedures.
- Be available to resolve problems relating to any delegate while in the host country or in transit (including flexibility to accept a change in your flight schedule to stay with a delegate if a delegate's flight is delayed or cancelled)
- Participate in all exchange activities as required (e.g. pre-departure orientations, group camp, in-country field trips, etc.)
- Demonstrate responsible behavior, a culturally sensitive attitude, and serve as a role model for delegates
- Fulfill all requirements set forth in the chaperone agreement
- Conduct evaluations at departure debriefing.
- Submit a final program report to Montana upon returning home.
- Chaperones will be available 24/7 during the exchange period. This is not a vacation for the chaperone—it is a working trip where he/she will always be “on-call” for the delegates, but he/she will still get to enjoy the culture of another country and experience life with a local family.

4. Additional Information:

AIRPORT SELECTION:

Montana 4-H will try to honor the chaperone's preferred local airport, but final airport selection and chaperone flight schedules will be determined by Montana 4-H with consideration for delegate air schedules. The chaperone may have extra airport connections or long layovers, which are necessary to ensure that delegates are accompanied on international flights and at gateway airports. If the chaperone elects to fly from a different airport than the one that Montana 4-H assigns, he/she will be responsible for any difference in airfare. Departure could be as early as 5AM and return could be as late as midnight. NOTE: In general, airfare is more expensive when you choose smaller airports.
